[8.102.462.5 NMAC - N, 04/01/2012]

8.102.462.6 OBJECTIVE:
A. The purpose of the New Mexico works (NMW) program is to improve the quality of life for parents and children by increasing family income, resources and support. The further purpose of the program is to increase family income through family employment and child support and by utilizing cash assistance as a support service to enable and assist parents to participate in employment. This is achieved by participation in, and successful completion of the activities described in this part.

B. The New Mexico wage subsidy program is a subsidized employment opportunity where a TANF cash assistance participant is employed full time. The department or its agents may subsidize the up to 50 percent of the employee's salary with funds from the TANF block grant. Funding of the program is contingent on specific appropriation of state and federal funding.

8.102.462.9 PROGRAM LIMITATIONS:

A. Failure to comply with other requirements: The benefit group shall be transitioned back to the NMW cash assistance and appropriate sanctions applied if a participant fails or refuses to comply with child support enforcement, or school attendance, or reporting requirements in the NMW cash assistance program. The transition is effective in the month following the month the failure or refusal to comply is established.

B. Two-parent family: In a two-parent family where only one of the parents is a participant in the New Mexico wage subsidy program, the other parent, if considered as a mandatory participant in the NMW work program, shall be required to participate in qualified work activities for a minimum of 30 hours per week. At least 20 hours a week must be spent in qualified primary work activities.

C. If a wage subsidy participant voluntarily quits a job without good cause, as determined by the NMW service provider or the department, the participant will no longer be considered for participation in the wage subsidy program. Refer to 8.102.620 NMAC for good cause provisions.

D. The TANF cash assistance participant will then have 10 days to notify the NMW service provider and renew work participation activities or be subject to the conciliation/sanction process for non-compliance with the work program.
