Exploratory Questions to Assist States in Assessment of Residential Settings

This optional tool is provided to assist states in assessing whether the characteristics of Medicaid Home and Community-based Services, as required by regulation, are present. The information is organized to cite anticipated characteristics and to provide suggested questions to determine if indicators of that characteristic are present.

Characteristics that are expected to be present in all home and community-based settings and associated traits that individuals in those settings might experience.

1. The setting was selected by the individual.
   • Was the individual given a choice of available options regarding where to live/receive services?
   • Was the individual given opportunities to visit other settings?
   • Does the setting reflect the individual’s needs and preferences?

2. The individual participates in unscheduled and scheduled community activities in the same manner as individuals not receiving Medicaid HCBS services.
   • Does the individual regularly access the community and is s/he able to describe how s/he accesses the community, who assists in facilitating the activity and where s/he goes?
   • Is the individual aware of or does s/he have access to materials to become aware of activities occurring outside of the setting?
   • Does the individual shop, attend religious services, schedule appointments, have lunch with family and friends, etc., in the community, as the individual chooses?
   • Does the individual come and go at any time?
   • Does the individual talk about activities occurring outside of the setting?

3. The individual is employed or active in the community outside of the setting.
   • Does the individual work in an integrated community setting?
   • If the individual would like to work, is there activity that ensures the option is pursued?
   • Does the individual participate regularly in meaningful non-work activities in integrated community settings for the period of time desired by the individual?

4. The individual has his/her own bedroom or shares a room with a roommate of choice.
   • Was the individual given a choice of a roommate?
   • Does the individual talk about his/her roommate(s) in a positive manner?
• Does the individual express a desire to remain in a room with his/her roommate?
• Do married couples share or not share a room by choice?
• Does the individual know how s/he can request a roommate change?

5. The individual chooses and controls a schedule that meets his/her wishes in accordance with a person-centered plan.
   • How is it made clear that the individual is not required to adhere to a set schedule for waking, bathing, eating, exercising, activities, etc.?
   • Does the individual’s schedule vary from others in the same setting?
   • Does the individual have access to such things as a television, radio, and leisure activities that interest him/her and can s/he schedule such activities at his/her convenience?

6. The individual controls his/her personal resources.
   • Does the individual have a checking or savings account or other means to control his/her funds?
   • Does the individual have access to his/her funds?
   • How is it made clear that the individual is not required to sign over his/her paychecks to the provider?

7. The individual chooses when and what to eat.
   • Does the individual have a meal at the time and place of his/her choosing?
   • Can the individual request an alternative meal if desired?
   • Are snacks accessible and available anytime?
   • Does the dining area afford dignity to the diners and are individuals not required to wear bibs or use disposable cutlery, plates and cups?

8. The individual chooses with whom to eat or to eat alone.
   • Is the individual required to sit at an assigned seat in a dining area?
   • Does the individual converse with others during meal times?
   • If the individual desires to eat privately, can s/he do so?

9. Individual choices are incorporated into the services and supports received.
   • Do Staff ask the individual about her/his needs and preferences?
   • Are individuals aware of how to make a service request?
   • Does the individual express satisfaction with the services being received?
   • Are requests for services and supports accommodated as opposed to ignored or denied?
   • Is individual choice facilitated in a manner that leaves the individual feeling empowered to make decisions?

10. The individual chooses from whom they receive services and supports.
    • Can the individual identify other providers who render the services s/he receives?
    • Does the individual expresses satisfaction with the provider selected or has s/he asked for a meeting to discuss a change?

- Does the individual know how and to whom to make a request for a new provider?

11. The individual has access to make private telephone calls/text/email at the individual’s preference and convenience.
