FINAL REGULATION

V. BACKGROUND

The New Mexico Human Services Register Volume 34, Number 14, proposed a new rule to increase participation in the Food Stamp Program among beneficiaries of the Medicare drug benefit’s Extra Help (also called Low Income Subsidy or LIS) by using the State Medicaid agency data from the Medicare Savings Programs (MSP) determination. This will be accomplished through New Mexico’s participation in a pilot project focusing on elderly and disabled individuals and couples that qualify for MSP, who do not have earned income and live in the Northeast region of the state.

A 30-day comment period was allowed and the Department held a public hearing on May 31, 2011. There were no attendees and five written comments were submitted.

One comment suggested that a reference citation be added to 8.139.504.8 A (4) for defining separate household status. This change was incorporated into the final rule.

Two other comments suggested that 8.139.504.8 A (7) have the first part of the citation deleted and that 8.139.504.8 A (8) be deleted all together as the language was extraneous. These changes were made to the final rule.

Another comment suggested adding receipt of earned income to actions on reported changes. This change was incorporated to the final rule at 8.139.504.10 D as number 5.
A comment suggested simplifying the opt out language at 8.139.504.9. This change was made to the final rule.

Final changes were made to 8.139.504.11 B, adjusting the benefit levels for one and two person households to best reflect updated cost neutrality calculations.
