

Section 6.0
Small Business Health Options
(SHOP)

6.1

Expected completion date: Fourth quarter, 2013

In New Mexico statute, a small business is defined as one having 2-50 employees. HSD is in the process of determining whether to define a small business for purposes of the HIX to include those with up to 100 employees, and will update CCIIO when the decision has been made.

In preparation for New Mexico's Planning Review of October 25 and 26, 2012, CCIIO provided an outline entitled "Key Questions" that guided the SHOP discussion. See the attached, "Key SHOP Questions and Answers Prepared for Planning Review" document.
