

The purpose of this document is to mock up the low-end of the proposed schedule based on discussion at the September 28 meeting. The discussion favored:

- A self-support reserve of $1,000 per month (which approximates the federal poverty level for 1 person);
- A minimum order of $60 per month (based on evidence of what low-income parents voluntarily pay);
- Increase the minimum order by $10-$15 per child; and
- Phase-in/Phase-out the self-support reserve/measurements of child-rearing expenditures similar to Schedule A.

Percentages for incomes above $30,000 per month will be prepared the week of October 8.
