Health Insurance Reform Bill Gets Unanimous House Approval

Legislation Part of Governor Richardson's Health Care Reform Agenda

Santa Fe, New Mexico – The House of Representatives today unanimously approved (59-0) one of Governor Richardson's Health Care Reform bills that focuses on Insurance Reform.

House Bill 111 as twice amended, Health Insurer Direct Services Reimbursement - Requires a health insurer to spend on direct health care services at least 85 percent of the amount it collects in premiums for coverage across all health product lines over a three-year period.

HB 111, sponsored by Representative John Heaton, now goes to the Senate for consideration.

The Governor's package of 10 Health Care Reform bills focus on Electronic Medical Records, Consolidation of Public Coverage Programs, and Insurance Reform to increase access to coverage and quality health care for all New Mexicans.
