Managed Care Organization Selection

Managed Care Organization Selection

i Beginning January 1, 2014 Medicaid services will be provided by the four Managed Care Organizations (MCO(s) listed below. You have a choice of which MCO provides your services. If you do not choose an MCO by January 1, 2014, you will be automatically assigned to an MCO by the State. Once you are enrolled with an MCO, you will have the option to change the MCO within 90 days of enrollment.

i Special information for Native Americans about Managed Care Organizations
If you are Native American, you are not required to choose an MCO. If you are in need of long-term care services or have Medicare, you will be required to choose one.

Additional Healthcare Assistance Options

You have completed all questions to find out if you qualify for Affordable Care Medicaid.

The New Mexico Human Services Department (HSD) has other types of healthcare assistance which helps individuals who are in a nursing home, needing long term care, in need of caregivers to help them live in their home and out in the community, lost Supplemental Security Income (SSI), or working and disabled.

Would you like to see if you and the others in your household who you have selected for healthcare benefits may qualify for one of these programs?
