RE: Selection of State Refugee Coordinator
DATE: October 12, 2018

This memorandum is to announce the selection of Megan Heurion as the State Refugee Coordinator (SRC) for the Work and Family Support Bureau (WFSB).

This is Megan's first position with the State of New Mexico. Her prior work experience is in Oregon working at a non-profit that serves families involved with the Department of Human Services Child Welfare program. She worked as a lead case manager and then a program supervisor helping individuals and families connect to community resources to meet their needs. She also has extensive work experience as both a Case Manager and Lead Case Manager supporting individuals with developmental disabilities access support services.

Megan graduated from University of Wisconsin (UW)-Stevens Point with a Bachelor's Degree in Spanish and Sociology and received her Master's Degree from UW-Milwaukee in Sociology.

Megan started her duties effective 8/25/18. Please join me in congratulating and welcoming Megan Heurion to her position as the State Refugee Coordinator with the Work and Family Support Bureau.
